THE MOST TALKED OF WOMAN IN ENGLAND.—Miss Ellen Lenton, the English beauty, who is visiting here, is the subject of a long letter in the London press, and was released by Mr. McKenna on the ground that she is a woman, suffering from a serious illness, as a result, it is said, of forcible feeding.

What the Advance Man Says

"ALMA, WHERE DO YOU LIVE?"
While of continental length, the spicy German-French farce, "Alma, Where Do You Live?" runs late because of the fourteen musical numbers which Jean Brigue, the most popular of Parisian composers, provided in the original score. All of these will be heard when Joe Weber presents his New York company in the most fascinating play at the Empire theatre the last half of this week. Every musical number in "Alma" is a hit in itself. Some of the titles are "Alma," which is the recurrent refrain of the piece; "Dirties," "Never More," "Hoo-Hoo-Hoo," "Childhood Days," "Boogie Woogie," "The Land of Beautiful Dreams," "Rat House," "Kiss Me, My Love," and "Love Me." The lyrics have all been done into English by George V. Hobart, the librettist of the American version.

VALENTINE TODAY.

Two more performances of the Orpheum vaudeville bill at the Empire theatre remain to be played, with Henry E. Dixey as the headliner. Less than ordinary variety is the best feature of this excellent bill, which is notable for the number of impersonations there are on it.

There is Mr. Dixey, one of America's best actors, who carries his audience through every branch of the theatrical profession, from acrobats to sentimental grandmothers in the drama. Harry L. Lester gives first class impersonations of Bill Williams, the colored comedian; Jean Bernard, the German musical comedy fun-maker; Riley Clifford, seen here recently, in the role of a Broadway "week," and last and best of all, H. Cooper Cliffe, the distinguished actor, as "Nobleman," "Everyman," "Bobby Barry," one of the justly famous Barry family, has series of impersonations of stage celebrities that is one of the best acts on the bill.

Other acts, including Hail Norcross, who unfortunately closed the bill, has one of the best comedy sketches seen here this winter, the Old Soldiers' Fiddlers are equally as popular here as they have been in the United States, and Spencer and Williams in songs and dances, and Power Brothers in acrobatic feats open the program.

COMMENDS WEST FOR RAISING OF STOCK

J. H. Grisdale, Director of Dominion Experimental Farms, Has Word of Praise for Progress Being Made for Stock Shows.

By Bulletin Leased Wire.
Ottawa, March 25.—The people of Western Canada are displaying great enterprise in the way they are preparing and conducting their stock shows, says J. H. Grisdale, director of Dominion experimental farms, who has returned home after visiting the fair week show at Brandon, Man. The new pavilion at Brandon, he says, easily the finest of its kind in Canada, laid according to the plans and specifications for buildings of the same kind at several other places. Grisdale says that another of the beautiful signs of progress in the west is the manner in which live stock is shown and handled. The farmers of the west have come to see that it pays to keep live stock, and especially dairy cattle, in the best condition. Best raising is not giving as much profit as the farmer would like, but raising and the keeping of such appear to give returns that encourage the farmer. The people of the western cities, too, are taking a great interest in agriculture, and the Dominion experimental farms are endeavoring to secure men prominently interested in the various agricultural addresses them at their various meetings.

MAKING PLANS TO REBUILD OMAHA

Movement Already on Foot to Form a Corporation for Purpose of Building Those Who Have Suffered by Storm.

By Bulletin Leased Wire.
Omaha, Neb. 25.—Plans for the rebuilding of the city are already under way, a movement to form a corporation for the purpose of doing those who need help having already been launched by several of the men who are in a position to afford such assistance.

Commissioner Rydner, who is in charge of the temporary relief work, realizes that the greatest stress will be felt within the period when reconstruction from the immediate shock is over. Speaking of this, he said: "The next ten days or so will be taken up with the work of caring for the temporary needs of the stricken; then will come the real work of rebuilding the homes. To this end we must take immediate steps for the formation of a committee or organization to control the situation that the work may be systematically pressed." Rydner, himself, a business man, declared the time to organize for rebuilding is now. "I would suggest," said Mr. Rydner, "that a corporation be formed at once for the purpose of raising funds at a merely nominal rate of interest to those who want to rebuild."

In fact, lists of losers are many who are proud and sensitive, who do not want to accept charitable aid.

At the conclusion of the day's hearing, Hunt was again granted bail, but it was increased to $15,000, the accused furnishing bail with Alberman Womels and L. V. Kerr $4,000 each.

Reported friendly relations existing between the two.

After relating his experience in connection with the explosion and his relations with Scott, the witness (Lewis) told of Scott asking him shortly after the explosion how it had occurred, Lewis replied:

"I told him I knew what had happened, and Mr. Scott felt in a kind of a faint."

These words caused the nearest approach to a sensation during the day, but the case was followed throughout with intense interest.

Great Loss of Life and Property in Wake of Floods—Thousands of People Driven From Their Homes—Wide Area in Four States Is Flooded.

Disastrous floods inundated wide areas of Ohio and Indiana today, bringing great loss of life in their trail and driving thousands of persons from their homes. Reports received from Indiana state that at Dayton 1,500 persons had been drowned in the muddy floods which rushed five feet deep through the streets. The actual loss of life, however, is now reported as 40.

At Delaware, Ohio, 26 persons were drowned. The property loss will reach into millions. In the flooded districts rivers were out of their banks, dams were bursting, and inhabitants of the lowlands fleeing for their lives.

The following is a resume of the situation: Information was received at the state capitol building at Columbus today from Dayton that forty persons had been killed as a result of the flood in that city. Adjutant-General Wood issued an order directing that the railroad bridge over the big Miami river be blown up. According to reports received the main street bridge, a steel and concrete structure, had already been swept away.

Bridge collapses and wide areas of the eastern portion of Columbus were swept away at State and Broad streets this afternoon. Dozens of small bridges already had gone out. Hundreds of men are marooned in factories on the west side, and police and National Guard troops made rescues where it was possible. All street car traffic was abandoned. Fifteen hundred deaths have been flooded.

Negotiations are under way on behalf of other large enterprises for sites at Port Edward. Port Edward's identity as a great industrial centre is established. It is beyond all surmise or probability.

Realize that you have the opportunity of a lifetime before you in this First Sale of Port Edward lots. The prices are low and the terms very easy. Don't make up your mind one way or the other now. Send for the complete literature. Get all the facts AND THEN ACT WITHOUT DELAY.

A True Story of Quick Profits

The original sale of lots in Prince Rupert was held in 1909. Lots 1 and 2 in Block 24 were originally sold to Mr. G. I. Wilson for $450. The price paid was small, and it was stated by many people at the time that town lots in Prince Rupert were rather doubtful buys. However, the man who really knew what was to come, who realized what the opening of the vast Northern Interior meant, bought as much as they could and hung on. Many of them who were in very moderate circumstances then are wealthy today. The lot referred to above which Mr. Wilson bought was held until November of last year. It was sold then for $19,000 cash.

This incident is not quoted as an isolated example. It is one of hundreds that can be referred to. Six hundred per cent on the investment was not an unusual profit for original purchasers in Prince Rupert.

PORT EDWARD OFFERS PRACTICALLY THE SAME OPPORTUNITY AS PRINCE RUPERT OFFERED IN 1909. ARE YOU GOING TO LET IT PASS?
